CONFETTI FOUNDATION & DEGREE COURSES

Confetti offers a unique and inspirational environment in which to study. Confetti’s connections to creative industries are real and on your doorstep.

Confetti offers:
- High standards of teaching
- Industry standard equipment and facilities
- Experienced and committed tutors
- Professional studios
- Unrivalled connections and opportunities

Confetti Institute of Creative Technologies is at the heart of the wider Confetti Media Group – seven creative businesses that include a BAFTA-winning film production company, Nottingham’s first local television station, a record label, and a creative industries business centre. The group’s activities provide real opportunities for Confetti students to mix with those employed in the creative industries. But crucially, the group also opens doors for students once they graduate, helping secure jobs in fiercely competitive industries and even providing opportunities to start up businesses.

Being a Confetti student means jobs in the TV, film, games and music industries are not just dream jobs. They are real jobs.

“Our aim is to make sure you receive the best, the most relevant & the most inspiring creative industry education & training. Our mission is to help turn your dream jobs into real jobs”.

Craig Chettle, Managing Director
Confetti Media Group.
